Get your product in front of the people who decide what gets bought, for their company and for themselves.

Marketing In Action (MIA) is a newsletter and community for people who build, market and sell products: founders, marketers, go-to-market (GTM) teams and operators.

01 Audience

Founders, marketers, GTM leaders and operators read MIA, and they open it.

They run their own marketing, build it for others or make the calls. We write case studies, playbooks and product showcases for them.
